Hambourg, June 16, N. S.

IT is adviſed from Altena, that the King of Denmark finds himſelf ſo well at preſent, that he intends to hold a Council on Monday next, and talks of reviewing the Troops himſelf, before the End of this Month. The Queen of Denmark was let Blood on the 8th Inſtant by way of Precaution; ſhe appears to have ſuffer'd much from Anxiety and want of Reſt, but does not yet perceive any Alteration in her Health. The Duke, Adminiſtrator of Mecklenburg, Charles Louis, arrived in this Town the 6th Inſtant, with the Prince his eldeſt Son, deſigning to wait upon the King of Denmark, but his Majeſty's Indiſpoſition not permitting it, he went back the 13th to Mecklenburg, yet will return hither again when he hears his ſaid Majeſty is in a Condition to receive him. The Reigning Margrave of Bareith is come to Altena, to pay his Court to the King his Uncle, who, notwithſtanding his Illneſs, has already ſeen him ſince his Arrival. His Highneſs is much diſtinguiſhed; two Gentlemen of the King's Bedchamber, beſides Guards and ordinary Domeſticks, are appointed to attend him; and his Majeſty's Table for the Preſent is kept at his Lodging.

Hambourg, June 19, N. S. The King of Denmark has had two ſmall Returns of his Ague, which prevented his holding the intended Council on Monday laſt; and as two or three Fits more are ſtill expected, though they grow every Time ſhorter and ſhorter, 'tis thought his Majeſty will not be able to meddle with the Expedition of his Affairs for theſe Eight or Ten Days yet.

Berlin, June 12, N. S. This Morning at Three a-Clock the King of Pruſſia ſet out from Potzdam on his Progreſs to Magdebourg: Of all the Foreign Miniſters here, the Marqueſs de la Chetardie only accompanies his Pruſſian Majeſty. General Pretorius, the Daniſh Miniſter, was indeed deſired to be of this Journey, but he is not yet come back from Holſtein, whither he went a few Weeks ago in order to pay his Duty to the King his Maſter.

Hanover, June 19, N. S. M. Munch, who was ſent hither on the Part of his moſt Serene Highneſs the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, to compliment the King on his ſafe Arrival in his German Dominions, had this Day at Noon his Audience of Leave: Two Deputies of the City of Bremen were likewiſe at the ſame time introduced to an Audience of the King, and complimented his Majeſty on the Part of their Republick upon his Arrival here.

Whitehall, June 14.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to nominate, conſtitute and appoint, William Holmes, Doctor in Divinity, and Preſident of St. John's College in the Univerſity of Oxford, to be Profeſſor of Modern Hiſtory in the ſaid Univerſity, in the Room of David Gregory, who has reſigned.

The Society of the Governour and Aſſiſtants, London, of the New Plantation in Ulſter, within the Realm of Ireland, do hereby give Notice, that they intend to meet on Thurſday the Firſt Day of July next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Iriſh Chamber in Guildhall, London, to receive Propoſals from any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be willing to purchaſe the Salmon that ſhall be taken and cured this Seaſon at their ſeveral Fiſheries in Ireland.
